

Oregon Coast Oasis

Nestled next to Siletz Bay, Salishan Resort has been offering wellness for decades. Many baby boomer natives grew up visiting there. Freshly remodeled and updated, guests are returning to enjoy the magic of this coastal oasis.

Salishan sits on 250 lush acres. It seems to be one with nature. Play a round of golf on their top-caliber course stretching from the bay to the edge of old forests. Walk on paths among the tall Douglas firs and Sitka spruce that leave you feeling you may have stepped into another place and time.

Stay, relax, and rejuvenate. The remodeled modern guest rooms wrap you in rustic luxury. Throughout you will enjoy Oregon Coast materials. Local woods, marble and stone. Whether you choose a simple spacious room, with a private balcony, or a lavish suite with its own hot tub, you won't be disappointed.

Oregon Coast details abound in The Spa at Salishan. From the moment you enter, coastal restorative elements surround you. Relax in the lounge and watch eagles soar over the bay. Or soak up nature from the outdoor infinity whirlpool accompanied by the dull roar of waves crashing.

Succumb to the hands of skilled massage therapists. Cool coastal temperatures make hot stone treatments a favorite. This Signature 90 minute treatment will shift you into a state of complete relaxation. With 8 different massages and 60 or 90-minute lengths, you have many choices.

Choose from a full range of customizable facials, body treatments, hand and foot treatments and salon services available. Spend an hour > spend the day. Retreat alone, bring a friend.

With four unique restaurants, your hardest decisions will be choosing which one. Choose their Signature room, Gray's for creative Pacific Northwest inspired dining. Gray's specializes in fresh local seafood and steaks. Their award-winning chef is known for his special creations and flavors. Enjoy the spectacular views of the coast while you try one of their famous pot pies.

If you want something more casual The Sun Room, The Attic Lounge or the Grill at the Golf Clubhouse each have their own special charm and unique atmosphere. Go, explore, and stay. There's lots to see at the coast.

Summers are high season at the Oregon Coast. Be sure to make your reservations in advance. The coast is popular year around for weekend escapes by those who live in the Willamette Valley.

It's only 2 hour 15 minutes from Portland. Inclement weather doesn't slow down Oregon Coast goers. They flock to vantage points where they can watch the power of Pacific storms high winds and crashing waves.

For the best pricing check out one of Salishan's package specials or visit during the off- season. October to May visitors enjoy less traffic and lower pricing, especially Sunday – Thursday.
